

EXPLORATIONS ACADEMY

Information Release Restriction Form

According to Federal Law, student information held by Explorations Academy, including student names, addresses, date and place of birth, phone numbers, photos, parents' names, dates of attendance, and post-high-school plans may be released to military personnel without direct consent of parents or guardians.

Parents have the right to restrict the release of such information by completing this form. Information on any student for whom we have this form completed will not be released to military recruiters or representatives of the Selective Service System.

I, _____, am the _____ of _____
Print name of parent/legal guardian Relationship Student

I request that Explorations Academy NOT RELEASE information on the above-named student to military recruiters or representatives of Selective Service System.

Parent/Guardian Signature _____ Date _____